2000 Pittsburgh Pirates Record and Information Guide

ON THE COVER

1 "The Smiling Pirate" was the club's logo from 1967 until 1987.

2-3 Dock Ellis throws the first pitch in the history of Three Rivers Stadium to the Reds' Ty Cline on July 16, 1970. The Bucs would lose the inaugural game to Cincinnati, 3-2.

4 "The Gunner", Bob Prince, Pirates broadcaster for 28 years, returned to the mike to call a nine-run inning as the Bucs pound the Dodgers, 16-2, on May 3, 1985.

5 Danny Murtaugh managed the Pirates for four different stints over 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976, capturing the World Series in 1960 and 1971.

6 "Chicken on the Hill with Will" was Prince's call when Stargell launched a home run, paying respect to Willie's charitable efforts in the Hill District.

7 In the 30 years of baseball at the stadium, 13 balls have been hit into the upper deck, each marked by its respective number.

8-9 Bob Gibson of the Cardinals throws the first no-hitter at Three Rivers, and the first ever against the Pirates in Pittsburgh, on August 14, 1971.

10 The infamous "Green Weenie" put the hex on opposing teams in the early 1970's.

11 The Bucs celebrate clinching the N.L. Eastern Division on September 27, 1971.

12 On October 6, 1971, the Pirates beat the Giants, 9-5, in Game Four of the NLCS, to win their first National League pennant in 11 years.

13 Dave Giusti and Manny Sanguillen celebrate the Bucs victory in Game Four of the 1971 World Series, also the first ever Series game played at night, October 13, 1971.

14 Three Rivers Stadium plays host to its first All-Star game, the 45th Annual Mid-Summer Classic on July 23, 1974.

15 John Candelaria tosses a no-hitter, a 2-0 gem over the Dodgers, in front of a national television audience on August 9, 1976.

16 In the heat of the 1979 pennant race, reserve outfielder John Milner is carried off the field by his teammates after hitting a 9th-inning, pinch-hit, game-winning grand slam against the Phillies on August 5th.

17-S Hall of Famer Willie Stargell, forever known as "Pops", was the cornerstone to Pirate teams of the 1970's. The regular season, NLCS and World Series MVP in 1979, he is the club's all-time leader in home runs, RBI and extra-base hits. He bestowed his trademark "Stargell Stars" on the caps of teammates who stepped up and made the extra effort.

18-19 The 1979 World Champions raised their game and their hats to the Sister Sledge tune "We Are Fam-a-Lee".

20 Manager Chuck Tanner gets a celebratory shower as the Bucs clinch the N.L. East crown on September 30, 1979.

21 "The Great One", Roberto Clemente, dafts his cap to the fans after notching his 3000th, and final, hit at Three Rivers on September 30, 1972.

22 Fan favorite Tony Pena, in his unique catching stance, handled most of the backstop duties for the Pirates in the decade of the 1980's.

23 Sporting a logo honoring the Pirate from the 1940's, the Bucs were a dominant force in the early 1990's, winning three straight division titles.

24 Doug Drabek celebrates the clinching of the Bucs' 1991 N.L. East division following his, 2-1, complete game mastery of the Phillies on September 22nd.

25 The stadium played host to its second Mid-Summer Classic, the 65th All-Star Game on July 12, 1994.

26 Following the double of Montreal's Moises Alou in the 10th inning, Tony Gwynn of the Padres slides across the plate with the winning run, giving the National League an 8-7, come-from-behind victory in front of 59,563, the largest crowd ever to see a baseball game in Pittsburgh.

27 The Pirate logo received a makeover prior to the 1997 season.

28 Manager Jim Leyland guided the Pirate ship for 11 seasons, winning 849 games and three division titles.

29-30 On one of the most magical nights in stadium history, Mark Smith watches his 10th inning, three-run homer sail towards left field and into the sellout crowd. The home run clinched the first ever extra-inning, combined no-hitter in major league history for the duo of Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon on July 12, 1997. In a ceremony prior to the game, the Pirates retired Jackie Robinson's #42.

"KISS IT GOODBYE"

Three Rivers Stadium. The Pirates' home from July 16, 1970 until October 1, 2000

By Steve Novotney

"The Three Rivers Stadium has been designed with one person in mind ...the fan who puts his money down at the ticket booth and comes to see the game. Every facility, every accommodation, every seat location has been made with his comfort and convenience in mind."

— Dahlen K. Ritchie, Deeter Ritchie Sippel, Architect & Planners, Pittsburgh, 1970

Fans witnessed the openings of eight new baseball parks during the 1960s, the most during the 20th Century until the 1990s. The current wave of eight new facilities was initiated with the christening of new Comiskey Park in Chicago in 1991, but the invention of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore the year after peaked the interest of all baseball fans.

Model-1970

The Dodgers moved west to Los Angeles in 1958 and into Dodger Stadium in 1962. Shea Stadium welcomed the Mets two seasons later, and the Astrodome, celebrated as the "Eighth Wonder of the World," revealed the Houston Astros in 1965. New facilities quickly followed in Anaheim, St. Louis, Oakland and San Diego.

From 1909 until the middle of the 1970 season, Forbes Field, complete with its expansive outfield dimensions, a "Rockpile" infield, wooden seats and bleacher benches, served as home for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

With the arrival of the 1970s, Three Rivers Stadium began a new trend in stadium design: perfectly round, artificially surfaced and multi-purposed with the room for 48,000 spectators for baseball and 61,000 for football.

First pitch at Three Rivers Stadium

The "Battlin' Bucs" returned to Pittsburgh's North Side to take occupancy of the ballclub's fourth home and baptized the $35-million facility on July 16, 1970, with a 3-2 defeat to the Cincinnati Reds. The club has since captured nine division titles, which included World Series Championships in 1971 and 1979, over the past 30 years.

The early success of the Pirates, coupled with four Super Bowl trophies claimed by the Steelers during the '70s, earned Pittsburgh national recognition as the "City of Champions" in 1979. The Pittsburgh baseball franchise has collected nine division championships and has hosted 26 post-season contests, along with a pair of All-Star games (1974, 1994) heading into its 31st, and final, season in Three Rivers Stadium. At the turn of the century, Three Rivers stood as the 11th oldest complex utilized for major league baseball.

The Reds opened the gates to Riverfront Stadium the same year as Three Rivers and Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium followed in 1971. All three complexes featured circular shapes of concrete with moveable seats and housed people. "You know, at the time, those places were great parks to play baseball in because of how different it was from the older yards," said Chuck Tanner, one of five skippers to manage the Pirates — and the second to guide the club to a World Series championship — in Three Rivers. "We had a batting cage under the stands when it rained, and the clubhouse, the offices and the dugouts were much bigger and better than what we were used to. It was certainly a step up.

OCTOBER 16, 1999 – First major pouring of concrete takes place.

DECEMBER OF 1999 – The 1,100-foot-long bulkhead wall along the Allegheny River is completed.

JANUARY 8, 2000 – Pre-cast concrete for seating area installed along right-field line.

PNC PARK TIMELINE

FEBRUARY 14, 1996 – Kevin McClatchy and his financial partners purchase the Pirates with condition of building a baseball-only ballpark within five years.

MARCH OF 1997 – A corporate group kicks off the Regional Renaissance Initiative – an effort to increase the sales tax by half a cent in 11 counties around Pittsburgh – as a way to help finance the new baseball stadium.

NOVEMBER 4, 1997 – The sales-tax increase proposal is rejected by voters in all 11 counties.

MARCH OF 1998 – The details of PLAN B are officially released.

JULY OF 1998 – The Regional Asset District board, which administers half the revenue raised by the county's 1% sales tax, delivers a huge endorsement for PLAN B, agreeing to supply $13.4 million a year for 30 years as the local portion of the funding.

AUGUST 6, 1998 – The Pirates and PNC Bank Corp. announce a 20-year marketing alliance under which the new home of the Pirates will be named PNC Park.

AUGUST 17, 1998 – First model of PNC Park unveiled.

SEPTEMBER 29, 1998 –

Demolition begins on future site of PNC Park.

OCTOBER 29, 1998 – Pirates announce selection of HOK Sport of Kansas City, MO, as the bridging architect, responsible for the design of PNC Park.

JANUARY 26, 1999 – City Planning Commission approves zoning and design changes.

JANUARY 28, 1999 - HOK unveils artist rendering of ballpark.

FEBRUARY 3, 1999 – PLAN B approved when Legislature voted in favor of providing $150 million in state funding.

to parking and the 24 acres occupied by the Roberto Clemente Park and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, was considered "blight" and a "disgrace" to the city.

With the construction of both PNC Park and the Steelers' new complex, the North Shore will remain an important landmark. "We are very proud of how Three Rivers Stadium has held up over the past three decades," Schneider said. "While it is true that constructing a facility which was multi-purpose was very important at the time, Three Rivers Stadium also allowed for signature suites, a private club with a full view of the playing field, and the best scoreboard system in the country which allowed the fans to interact. Sports fans had not experienced these things before Three Rivers.

"But this structure has become physically obsolete over the years. Three Rivers Stadium is still a good facility, but we feel we can do much better for the future of this region."

PNC Park, a $209 million baseball-only ballpark set to open in 2001 and financed with private, local and state funds, will again change the game for the Pirates — and Bucco fans in the stands. The two-tier facility will have a natural playing surface, seats much closer to the action, a 21-foot right field wall and "the best view of any city skyline in the country," according to Kevin McClatchy, CEO and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"PNC Park will give our fans a more personal experience when they come to the ballpark. The fans will be much closer to the players and there will be much more character and atmosphere surrounding you."

"When PNC Park opens its gates for the first time," Murphy added, "it will mark the beginning of a whole new Pittsburgh for the people of Western Pennsylvania. There are many priceless memories that occurred inside the stadium, but I've personally never thought of Three Rivers as a very memorable facility.

I believe that will change with PNC Park because this new ballpark will stand for a region's revival."

and the present-day Sony JumboTron — 25.5-feet high and 63 feet wide — was installed in 1993. The current two-section display has a 30,000-light matrix board and a "replay screen" illuminated by 38,528 bulbs.

Additional auxiliary boards were placed along the first- and third-base lines at the time, and the installation of more than 500 television monitors was completed before the end of 1994. New blue seats replaced the original red chairs on the first level prior to the 1997 season.

Improving the atmosphere has been an objective of The Stadium Authority of the City of Pittsburgh throughout the life of the complex, with the most expensive renovation being the Headwaters River Pub and Signature Sports merchandise store which was constructed within Gate C in 1997. But it all started with grand, flashy concession stands with the mid-'90s. The Headwaters Pub joined the "Bullpen Cafe" beyond the left field wall to provide full-service restaurant/beverage service areas to the general public.

"We have had to respond to what fans want when they come to the ballpark for a baseball game," said Mark Schneider, chairman of The Stadium Authority since 1993. "Improvements have been made to every part of the facility over the years in order to increase the fan's enjoyment."

Three Rivers Stadium was constructed on vacant land adjacent to the confluence of the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers. The North Side area, which included 27 acres for the footprint of the park itself, 33 acres dedicated

"There are a lot of memories for me, and for the fans, that happened in Three Rivers. For a long time, when people across the country thought about the city of Pittsburgh, they thought of Three Rivers because that's all most of the people had ever seen of the city," added the Pirates skipper of nine years (1977-1985).

"And that's because the Pirates and the Steelers were on television so much because we were both winning. To a lot of people, including me, it's a very special place."

Allegheny Club

Forget the "flying saucer" design, the 16,000 field lights, the escalators and elevators, the Allegheny Club, the luxury boxes, the 4,500 parking spaces and the hundreds of other differences between Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The first fans to take the seats at the Pirates' new home took notice to the most defining deviation between the two facilities — the seats were an average of 22 inches in width instead of the 18-inch seating area offered by the Forbes Field chairs.

The players, however, immediately noticed the playing surface. "Tartan Turf," a product of the 3M Corp., was the first artificial field featured at Three Rivers Stadium. Ironically, the fake field was expected to decrease the number of knee injuries because of its "resilience," but did offer a genuine yet exaggerated bounce. "I think the first time I ever saw what can be considered as a true bounce in Pittsburgh was during my first game at Three Rivers," confessed Bill Mazeroski, a 17-year member of the Pirates (1956-1972) and eight-time Gold Glover who many consider as the best second baseman ever to play in the bigs. "And I played 14 years before we moved into the new place. It definitely changed the game."

Old Scoreboard

Providing an explosion of information was the primary purpose of the new "baseball atmosphere" in Three Rivers. The gigantic scoreboard, measuring 30 feet high and 274 feet in width, was divided into three sections: a message center, which displayed "instant information" to the fans; a triad section on which images of team logos and the American Flag appeared; and the game-in-progress section — the balls, strikes, outs, runs by innings, batter information and special rulings. This board was replaced with a center field Mitsubishi DiamondVision after the 1982 season,

KEVIN McCLATCHY

CEO & MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

Kevin McClatchy was named Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates when the ownership group he formed purchased the franchise on February 14, 1996.

Despite the efforts of other potential buyers to move the Pirates elsewhere, McClatchy was determined to keep the team in Pittsburgh. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

On August 6, 1998, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark started becoming a reality when PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park. Construction on the 38,000-seat venue began in April of 1999 on the land adjacent to the Roberto Clemente Bridge (61th street) along the north shore of the Allegheny River. The Pirates are scheduled to begin play at PNC Park in April of 2001.

The club has enjoyed success at the turnstiles in McClatchy's first four years at the helm, averaging over 1.5 million fans a season. In that time, the organization has posted 10 sellouts (a record four sellouts in 1997 and three each in 1998 and 1999). In just his second year as the club's principal owner, the Pirates went from a last-place finish in 1996 to being the talk of baseball in 1997. Prior to the '97 campaign, Baseball America - considered the premier publication on minor league baseball - rated the Pirates' farm stem as "the best in baseball" and USA Today newspaper named the Pirates as its "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. In December of 1997, USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Pirates' success in 1997 as one of the top five baseball stories for the year.

McClatchy was named by Vectors/Pittsburgh as its Man of the Year for 1999 and was honored by The Post-Gazette for his leadership role in assuring the Pirates' continued presence in Pittsburgh into the new century at the annual Dapper Dan dinner in February. For his commitment to keeping the club in Pittsburgh and stressing the importance of a new baseball-only venue, in addition to making over 100 speaking engagements in the tri-state area, In Pittsburgh newsweekly named McClatchy its "Person of the Year" in 1997.

The fifth owner of the 113-year-old organization, Kevin most recently served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network; a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide.

McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, Kevin returned to California where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

McClatchy...Born on 1/13/63 in Sacramento, CA...Attended Trinity-Pawling High School in Pawling, NY, and received a degree in Political Science from the University of California at Santa Barbara...Is a member of the Board of Trustees at both schools...In 1998, was honored by ARC-Allegheny and was the recipient of the Outstanding Community Service Award presented by LaRoche College...Received the Golden Ear award in December of '98 from CONTACT, Pittsburgh's Crisis & Suicide Prevention Center, for demonstrating outstanding listening skills...Named YMCA Man of the Year in 1998...Serves on the board of Catholic Charities and Dapper Dan Charities...Is also involved with the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, the Jackie Robinson Foundation and the American Cancer Society...Was involved with the United Way Foundation and the Big Brother program while living in Miami...Named to Major League Baseball's Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics on 1/13/99.

DICK FREEMAN

COO & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Dick Freeman was named Chief Operating Officer of the Pirates on October 8, 1996. He is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day business operations of the club which include broadcasting, marketing, public/media relations and finance. In addition, he is actively involved with the club's new ballpark project (PNC Park).

Freeman's ties to baseball came from San Diego, where he spent 14 years in the Padres organization. Dick joined the Padres in 1981 as Chief Financial Officer and became Vice President of Administration in 1983. In 1986, he was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Freeman held that position until September of 1988 when he was named President of the Padres organization, a role he served until July of 1995.

Prior to his career with the Padres, Freeman was the treasurer of a San Diego area savings & loan and was also with the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company in both Los Angeles and San Diego.

PERSONAL: Richard J. Freeman...Born on 3/7/44 in Oskaloosa, IA...Wife's name is Judi...One daughter: Heather (24)...Graduated from the University of Iowa in 1966 with a degree in business administration...Served in the U.S. Navy and was stationed at Naval Air Station North Island from 1969-70...Is a member of the national March of Dimes Board of Trustees...Is also a member of the Pittsburgh Make-A-Wish Board of Directors and the Salk Institute Board of Trustees.

CAM BONIFAY

SENIOR VP & GENERAL MANAGER

Cam Bonifay was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on June 19, 1993, after serving the club for three years as Assistant General Manager. On September 1, 1998, the club extended his contract through 2003.

Among all 30 major league General Managers, Cam ranks seventh when it comes to continuous tenure with the same club - fourth among N.L. GMs. As a result of his dedication and desire to succeed, the Pirates have gone from a team with a $9 million dollar payroll in 1996 to a club with a payroll over $30 million that has a chance to challenge for the N.L. Central Division title.

With Bonifay in his current role, the Pirates have been committed to scouting and signing amateur players while continuing to improve the club thru key trades and acquisitions. Most recently Cam and his staff worked hard to acquire slugger Brian Giles from the Indians, 1999 Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Warren Morris from Texas and lefthander Scott Sauerbeck in the 1998 Rule Five draft. In a series of seven trades between July and December of 1996, the club acquired 17 prospects in an effort to strengthen an already promising player development system. Bonifay and his staff received national notice as Baseball America recognized the Pirates as having the best minor league system in all of baseball prior to the season, and USA Today named the Pirates its organization of the year in September of '97.

For his efforts in 1997, The Sporting News named Bonifay its Major League Executive of the Year - an award given annually by the publication since 1936. Joe L. Brown, who served the Pirates as General Manager for 22 years between 1956-1976 and again in 1985, is the only other Pirate executive to win the honor (1958).

Bonifay joined the Pirates organization as a national scout in September of 1988 before being promoted to Director of Scouting in November of the same year. He served the Pirates in that role for two seasons before being named Assistant General Manager on December 11, 1990.

Cam began his career in scouting with the Cincinnati Reds organization as an associate scout in 1976 and he also worked in scouting for the St. Louis Cardinals for three years (1978 to 1980). During that period, he was also a teacher and a basketball, baseball and football coach in the high school ranks in Macon, GA. He returned to the Reds as a scouting supervisor in the Southeast United States and Latin America (1982 to 1987). Bonifay spent the 1988 baseball season at Georgia Tech where he served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before being hired by the Pirates.

Bonifay was a three-sport letterman in baseball, football and basketball at Mark Smith High School in Macon, GA. He was an All-State performer in baseball as a senior and the starting point guard on the state championship basketball team as a junior. Cam earned a degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1974 where he was an All-American first baseman/third baseman. He was also the place-kicker on the football team, which helped earn him a spot in the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame. After graduating from college, he played baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization for one year.

PERSONAL: Cameron Hubert Bonifay...Born on 2/12/52 in St. Petersburg, FL...Wife's name is Leigh...Six children: Jonathan (25), Josh (22), Jennifer (21), Ryan (10), Michael (eight) and Anna (6/30/99)...His father, Bob, was a business manager & GM in the Detroit and Cincinnati organizations for more than 25 years...Son Josh plays in Pirates' farm system.

LENNY YOCHIM

SENIOR ADVISOR/PLAYER PERSONNEL

Having joined the Pirates in 1966, Lenny Yochim is the senior member of the Pirates' baseball operations staff. Prior to being named to his current position on December 4, 1997, Yochim served the Pirates as a special assistant to the General Manager for four years. He worked as a major league scout between 1990 and 1993 and has scouted for the Pirates in a variety of roles over the past 31 years. In December of 1994, Lenny was named the Midwest Scout-of-the-Year and in April of 1996, he received the "Pride of the Pirates" award, an award given annually by the club since 1990.

Yochim became involved in scouting initially on a part-time basis with the Kansas City Athletics in 1957. He also served as a part-time scout with the Yankees (also full-time in 1962) before becoming a full-time scout with Pittsburgh in 1966. Lenny served as an area scout for the Pirates for 14 years (until 1979) and as a national crosschecker for 10 years (1980 to 1989).

A native of New Orleans, Yochim was a left-handed pitcher who signed with the hometown New Orleans Pelicans after graduating from Holy Cross High School in 1946 (at the time, New Orleans was the Double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox). He became property of the Pirates when Pittsburgh bought the club in 1948. His 10-year professional playing career included major league stints with the Pirates during the 1951 and 1954 seasons.

PERSONAL: Lenny was born on 10/16/28 in New Orleans, LA. He and his wife Doris currently reside in River Ridge, LA. The couple has two sons; Brian (48) and David (43), and two daughters; Daryl (47) and Jamie (45). In addition, they have seven grandchildren.

GEORGE ZURAW

ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

George Zuraw returns to the Pirates for the first time since 1966. He re-joined the organization on October 13, 1999, after serving the Seattle Mariners as Assistant to the Vice President of Baseball Operations for 12 years.

Zuraw is entering his sixth decade in professional baseball. He played six years of minor league ball with the Cleveland Indians and the Pirates, having his career interrupted by serving two years in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War. Upon retirement from baseball, he attended California State University near his hometown of Charleroi, PA.

George began his professional scouting career with the Pirates, serving as an associate scout. He was hired full-time in 1959 and was responsible for scouting the Southeast region of the United States. After eight years with Pittsburgh, Zuraw joined the Cincinnati Reds, serving as their Florida scout and Latin American Scouting Supervisor during a 21-year span.

Zuraw has personally signed 25 players that eventually made it to the major leagues during his career. He was honored as the scout of the year in 1995 and has amassed five World Series rings, one with Pittsburgh and four with Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: George and his wife Lois reside in Englewood, FL. The couple has two sons: Jack (46) and Scott (41).

KEN PARKER

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GEN. MGR.

Ken Parker served as a special assignment scout for the Pirates for three seasons after joining the organization as a roving minor league hitting instructor in 1990. He was named to his current position in September of 1993.

Born in Laurel, MS, on 1/18/39, Parker was an all-state punter in football and an all-state shortstop in baseball at George S. Gardner (MS) High School. He turned down a football/baseball scholarship from the University of Mississippi to sign with the Baltimore Orioles in 1959. A broken leg during spring training of 1959 ended his playing career. Parker was a roving instructor with the Orioles between 1960-65.

Kenny was then a manager in Baltimore's minor league system with Aberdeen (SD) and Bluefield (WV) in 1966 and 1967 respectively. He was also a full-time scout with the Orioles between 1968 and 1974 before joining the Major League Scouting Bureau in 1975. Ken spent five years in that role and also scouted for the Philadelphia Phillies (1980-1981) and the San Francisco Giants (1982-1989) before being hired by the Pirates.

PERSONAL: Kenny and his wife Carolyn reside in Cantonment, FL. The couple has one son, Ken Jr. (38) and two daughters, Karen (42) and Wendy (34).

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'1"/215
PLAYING POSITION: Catcher
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2000

Gene Lamont became the 34th manager in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates when he replaced Jim Leyland on October 3, 1996. In his first season at the helm, Lamont guided the Pirates to a 79-83 record and a second-place finish in the Central Division (the club wasn't eliminated until the final weekend of the season). For his efforts, he finished second behind San Francisco's Dusty Baker in the voting for National League Manager-of-the-Year (the Giants won the West Division). In 1998, the Bucs slipped to 69-93 and a sixth-place finish in the N.L. Central.

The 1999 season marked Lamont's 10th with the organization. Despite having his team decimated by injuries, he guided the Pirates to a 78-83 record last year and a third-place finish in the Central division. Prior to being appointed manager of the Pirates, he served the club as Third Base Coach between 1986-1991 and again during the 1996 season. During his previous tenure with the Bucs, the club won two division championships and appeared in the League Championship Series in both 1990 and 1991. He has gone 226-259 as the manager of the Bucs and 484-469 in his seven-year career.

Lamont reached the 400-win plateau in his managerial career with a 9-6 triumph at Arizona on August 25, 1998 and served on Jim Leyland's N.L. coaching staff at the All-Star Game in Denver, CO, on July 7, 1998.

On November 26, 1991, Gene was named manager of the Chicago White Sox, a position he held until being dismissed of his duties on June 2, 1995. In his four seasons as skipper of the White Sox, Lamont compiled a 258-210 (.551) record. In 1993 he led the ChiSox to a 94-68 record and the American League West Division title - the club's first title since 1983. For his efforts, Lamont was named the American League's Manager-of-the-Year. His club also finished first during the strike-shortened 1994 campaign.

Gene spent eight seasons as a manager in the Kansas City Royals' farm system after retiring as a player in 1977. He began his managerial career with Ft. Myers (A) in 1978, leading the club to a playoff berth. Following two seasons with Ft. Myers, he managed Jacksonville (AA) for four years. Lamont was named the Southern League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1982 and his clubs advanced to the playoffs in two of the four seasons. He spent his two years prior to joining the Pirates as manager at Omaha (AAA).

The Detroit Tigers made Lamont their number one selection (13th pick overall) in 1965, drafting him ahead of Hall-of-Famer Johnny Bench (second round). He made his big league debut with the Tigers in 1970 and homered off Boston's Cal Koonce in his first at bat on September 2. In five seasons with the Tigers, Lamont posted a .233 career average, four home runs and 14 RBI in 87 games.

PERSONAL: Gene William Lamont...Wife's name is Melody...Two children; Melissa (8/26/82) and Wade (6/25/84)...Graduated from Hiawatha High School in Kirkland, IL, where he was a three-sport letterman in baseball, basketball and football...Was an all-state performer in basketball his senior year...Attended Northern Illinois University and Western Illinois University.

JONES

AGE: 58
BORN: 12/13/41 in Lebanon, TN
RESIDES: Sarasota, FL
BATS/THROWS: Right/Right
HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 5'8"/165
PLAYING POSITION: Infielder
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2000

Now in his 38th year in professional baseball, Joe Jones is in his fourth season as First Base Coach for the Pirates. He was named to his current position on October 8, 1996, after serving the Kansas City Royals as their Minor League Coordinator of Instruction since 1988.

A second baseman during his playing days, Jones signed his first contract with the White Sox in 1963. In seven years as a player in Chicago's system, Joe compiled a .255 batting average, two home runs, 251 RBI and 143 stolen bases in 813 games. He served Lynchburg as a player/coach in 1968 and 1969.

Jones began his managerial career with the Sarasota White Sox in 1970 and led the club to a 36-24 record and the Gulf Coast League championship. For his efforts, he was named the league's post-season All-Star manager. In his first eight seasons at the helm in Sarasota, Joe compiled a 236-200 (.541) record and another league championship in 1977.

In 1978 Jones replaced Tony LaRussa as manager at Knoxville after LaRussa was promoted to Chicago on 7/4. He guided the club to a 35-31 second-half record and captured the Southern League championship.

Jones' 18-year association with the Kansas City organization began in 1979 when he managed Jacksonville in the Southern League. A year later, he skippered the Royals' Sarasota (blue) team to the Gulf Coast League championship - his third title in four years. Joe served the Royals as their manager at Sarasota for five seasons (1980-83, 1985) and as their traveling infield/base running instructor for two years (1984 & 1986) prior to being named the club's minor league Coordinator of Instruction in 1988.

Jones was the Royals' First Base Coach in 1987 and also served the major league club as Bench Coach for two months during the 1992 campaign. In 15 seasons as a minor league manager, Joe has compiled a 511-444 (.535) record.

Jack Lind is in his fourth season as the Pirates' Third Base Coach. He was named to his current position on October 7, 1996, after serving the organization as its Minor League Coordinator of Instruction the previous seven seasons (1990-96).

Lind began his association with the Bucs on July 23, 1988, as Third Base Coach with the Buffalo Bisons (AAA). He served as Minor League Infield Instructor in 1989 prior to becoming the coordinator of instruction in 1990.

Originally signed by Houston in the seventh round of the 1967 June free agent draft (secondary phase), Jack made his professional debut with Asheville (A) that summer. Lind spent eight seasons in the minors before making his major league debut with Milwaukee on 9/10/74. In parts of two big-league seasons (1974-75), he batted .135 (5-for-37) with one RBI in 26 games. As a minor league player, Jack was named to the Carolina League All-Star team as a shortstop with Greensboro in 1968 and was a member of the league champion Evansville club in 1972.

Jack retired as a player after spending the 1977 season playing in Japan for the Tokyo Yomiuri Giants. After two seasons (1981-82) as assistant baseball coach at Arizona State University, Lind began his managerial career in the Angels' farm system with Redwood in 1983 and captured the California League championship. Jack spent the next five years managing in the Cincinnati minor league system, winning league championships with Vermont in 1984 & 1985 and taking Denver to the championship series in 1986. In six seasons as a manager in the minor leagues, Lind compiled a 399-377 (.514) record and three league championships.

LLOYD McCLENDON

AGE: 41

BORN: 1/11/59 in Gary, IN

RESIDES: Merrillville, IN

BATS/THROWS: Right/Right

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'0"/210

PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2000

Lloyd McClendon is in his fourth season as the Pirates' Hitting Coach. He was named to his current position on October 7, 1996, after serving the organization as its minor league hitting coordinator in 1996.

McClendon spent parts of eight seasons in the majors; playing the last four years of his big league career with the Pirates. In 570 major league games, Lloyd compiled a .244 batting average, 35 home runs and 154 RBI. He batted .251 with 17 homers and 77 RBI in 312 games with the Bucs.

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the eighth round of the 1980 June free agent draft, McClendon made his professional debut with Kingsport in the Appalachian League that summer. He was traded to Cincinnati on 12/16/82, along with pitcher Charlie Puleo and outfielder Jason Felice, in exchange for pitcher Tom Seaver. In 1986, his second full season at the Triple-A level, Lloyd led the American Association with 24 home runs and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team. He made his major league debut with the Reds the following season against Montreal on 4/6.

The Chicago Cubs acquired McClendon from Cincinnati in a deal for outfielder Rolando Roomes on 12/9/88. Lloyd spent two seasons in the Cubs' organization before being claimed on waivers by the Pirates on 9/7/90. After four seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform, Mac was granted free agency and signed a minor league contract with Cleveland on 5/14/95. He retired as a player after appearing in 37 games with Buffalo (AAA) in 1995.

During his big league career, McClendon appeared in the League Championship Series with the Cubs (1989) and Pirates (1991-92) and compiled a .625 average (10-for-16) in 11 games. He homered off Atlanta's Marvin Freeman in Game Six of the 1992 L.C.S. and shares the Series record for most hits in one inning (2-10/13/92, 2nd inning). Reached base safely in each of his last eight official plate appearances of the '92 L.C.S. (four singles, walk, home run, two walks).

PERSONAL: Lloyd Glenn McClendon...Wife's name is Ingrid...Two children: Schenell (4/9/83) and Bo (10/4/87)...Graduate of Roosevelt High School (IN) in 1977 where he was an All-State selection in baseball. ...Played baseball at Valparaiso (IN) University...Participated in the 1971 Little League World Series and earned the nickname "Legendary Lloyd" after going 5-for-5 with five home runs (on five swings) and five intentional walks for his Gary (IN) team...Managed the Lancaster Stealth to the California League championship this past off-season.

RICK RENICK

AGE: 56
BORN: 3/16/44 in London, OH
RESIDES: Sarasota, FL
BATS/THROWS: Right/Right
HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'1" / 220
PLAYING POSITION: INF/OF
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2000

Rick Renick is in his fourth year as Pittsburgh's Bench Coach. He was named to his current position on October 8, 1996, after managing at the Triple-A level the previous five full seasons for the Chicago White Sox (1992-96).

In his last five years as manager, he guided his clubs to a combined 390-327 (.544) record, including playoff appearances with Nashville in 1993 and 1994. Rick was named American Association's Manager-of-the-Year in 1993 after leading Nashville to a division title and again received the honor in 1996. Renick became Vancouver's skipper on 7/19/91 after managing just two games with Sarasota at the rookie level.

Rick spent six years in the majors as Third Base/Hitting Coach for Montreal (1985-86) and Minnesota (1987-90). He was a member of the 1987 World Champion Twins and was a coach for the American League in the 1988 All-Star Game. After retiring as a player following the 1978 season, Renick served the Royals as their Minor League Hitting Instructor (1979-80) and spent the 1981 season as Kansas City's Hitting Coach at the major league level. He began his managerial career in the Montreal organization at Memphis (1982-83) and was named Southern League co-Manager-of-the-Year after leading Jacksonville to a 76-69 record in 1984. In nine seasons as a minor league manager, Rick has compiled a 620-599 (.508) record.

Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Minnesota in 1965, Renick began his professional career with Orlando that summer and was named to the Florida State League All-Star team. In 1968, Rick made his major league debut and became the 36th player in history to homer in his first big-league at bat when he connected off Detroit's Mickey Lolich at Metropolitan Stadium on 7/11. In 276 major league games with the Twins, Renick batted .221 with 20 home runs and 71 RBI.

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'4"/245
PLAYING POSITION: Pitcher
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2000

Pete Vuckovich is in his fourth season as the Pirates' Pitching Coach and his ninth in the Pittsburgh organization. He was named to his current position on October 7, 1996, after serving the club as Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel during the '96 campaign. Vuckovich's association with the Pirates began in 1992. He served the club as its minor league pitching coordinator for two seasons and was a special assistant to General Manager Cam Bonifay in 1994 and 1995.

The Johnstown, PA, native pitched 11 seasons in the major leagues after being selected by the Chicago White Sox in the third round of the 1974 June free agent draft. He made his major league debut with the ChiSox on 8/3/75 and spent the entire 1976 season with Chicago before being selected by Toronto in the American League expansion draft on 11/5/76.

In 286 major league games, Pete compiled a 93-69 record and a 3.66 ERA. The highlight of his career came in 1982 when he went 18-6 for Milwaukee, won the A.L. Cy Young Award and helped the Brewers earn a World Series berth against St. Louis. Arm problems forced him to retire prior to the 1987 season.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Vuke worked as a color commentator for Brewers baseball with WCVB-TV for three seasons (1989-1991).

KENT BIGGERSTAFF

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kent Biggerstaff is in his 19th year as a trainer with the Pittsburgh Pirates and his 15th as the club's Head Trainer. In addition, he recently completed a six-year term as President of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Born in Wood River, IL, on November 27, 1947, "Biggie" received an undergraduate degree in math from Southern Illinois University in 1969. He served as general manager and trainer for the New York Mets' Marion (Rookie League) club in the Appalachian League from 1967 to 1969, while he was still attending college. He was a trainer for the Memphis Blues (AA) of the Texas League from 1970 to 1972. Biggerstaff followed that with a five-year stint (1973-1977) with the Mets' Tidewater (AAA) affiliate in the International League. In 1978, he trained for the Milwaukee Brewers' Holyoke (AA) club in the Eastern League before spending two years with their Vancouver (AAA) club in the Pacific Coast League. He joined the Pirates' organization in 1981 as trainer with Portland (AAA) of the PCL. In 1982, Biggerstaff was named assistant trainer at the major league level. He has been the head trainer for the Pirates since 1986 and has represented the National League at the All-Star Game in 1990 and 1994.

During baseball's off-season, Biggerstaff officiates local high school and college basketball games. He and his wife Earlene make their home in Gibsonia and have one daughter; Ashley (24).

BILL HENRY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Bill Henry is in his fourth season as the Pirates' assistant athletic trainer, having been named to the post on December 13, 1996.

Henry, born in Fort Wayne, IN, on 11/6/58 began his association with the Pittsburgh organization as a trainer at Bradenton in 1986. After six seasons with the Gulf Coast League team, he served the club as its roving minor league fitness instructor between 1992-94. Prior to being appointed to the major league staff, Bill spent two years as the Pirates' minor league strength and conditioning coordinator (1995-96).

Upon receiving a bachelors degree in education from New Mexico State University and a masters degree in specialization/athletic training from Ohio University, Henry began his career in professional baseball as the Yankees' athletic trainer during the 1986 spring training campaign. He spent the summer of '86 as an athletic trainer in Cleveland's farm system with Burlington prior to joining the Pirates.

Bill is single and resides in the North Hills section of Pittsburgh.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Joseph Coroso is in his 20th year as the Pirates' team physician, having joined the club in 1980. The West Hartford, CT, native received his bachelor's degree from Holy Cross College in 1973 and his medical degree from Albany (NY) Medical College in 1977.

He served his three-year residency at Pittsburgh's St. Margaret Memorial Hospital and was the hospital's assistant chief resident in his final year. Dr. Coroso currently has a private practice in St. Mary's, PA.

Joe and his wife Mary Helen have three daughters; Angela (16), Mary (14), Kaitlyn (11), and make their home in St. Mary's.

TEAM ORTHOPEDIST

Dr. Jack Failla joined the Pirates as team orthopedist in 1981. A native of New Castle, PA, Dr. Failla received his undergraduate and medical degree from Marquette University; he graduated with a bachelor's degree in biology/math in 1964 and became an M.D. in 1968. While at Marquette, he played football and basketball. Failla performed an orthopedic surgery residency under former Pirates team orthopedist Dr. Albert Ferguson at the University of Pittsburgh from 1973 to 1976. He also served in the United States Navy from 1969 to 1972 as a lieutenant, flight surgeon and medical examiner.

Failla works primarily out of North Hills Passavant Hospital and Allegheny General Hospital. He and his wife Carol reside in Franklin Park and have four children: Anna Maria (32), Kristine (31), Paul (27) and Mary Beth (25). His son Paul was selected by the California Angels in the third draft and spent four seasons in their minor league system.

WARREN SIPP

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Dr. Warren Sipp joined the Pirates organization as Strength and Conditioning Coach in 1986. In that role, he is primarily responsible for the year-round conditioning of major league players, but he also designs and oversees workout programs which are utilized throughout the Pirates' minor league system, especially at the Triple and Double-A levels.

Formerly an assistant professor for the University of Pittsburgh's Health, Physical and Recreation Education Department, Sipp had also served as Pitt's varsity sports strength and conditioning coach. He received his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Pitt in 1983 and had worked at the school since 1969.

A native of Akron, OH, he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1969. He majored in physical education and special education. A three-year letterman on the Wolverines football team, he was honorable mention All-Big Ten fullback in 1967 when he was paired in the backfield with All-American Ron Johnson.

Under Sipp's guidance and direction, the Pirates established a year-round corporate fitness program which is now in its eighth year. Sipp and his wife Lillie reside in Forest Hills and have two children; Nia (25), who is a third-year medical student at the University of Pittsburgh and Carl (22), who is a senior at the University of Virginia.

JEFF BANISTER

MAJOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Jeff Banister is in his second season as the Pirates' Major League Field Coordinator after spending the previous five years as a manager in the Bucs' minor league system. In his current role, Banister assists the major league coaching staff in various aspects of instruction, both at home and on the road.

Jeff was originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft and began his professional career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career major league batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry @Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg as a teenager in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach in Carolina in 1993 before beginning his managerial career in Welland in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta in 1995 and then on to Lynchburg for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. Jeff replaced Marc Hill at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 season at the Mudcats' helm. He has compiled a 299-330 record (.475) in his five seasons. Jeff, born on 1/15/65 in Weatherford, OK, resides in LaPorte, TX, with his wife Karen and their daughter Alexandra (5). He attended LaMarque (TX) High School and the University of Houston.

ROGER WILSON

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

The 2000 season marks Roger's 25th in the major leagues and his ninth as the Equipment Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was named to his current position in December of 1991 after spending the previous 16 years as the visiting clubhouse manager for the Cincinnati Reds. He is a native of Cincinnati who graduated from Green Hills High School in 1971 and earned a degree in education from Wilmington College (OH) in 1976.

Wilson is responsible for ordering all equipment - both for the major league club and all minor league affiliates - and maintaining the Pirates clubhouse at Three Rivers Stadium. He also oversees the transfer and distribution of personal luggage and baseball equipment during team travel. He and his wife Sherry have two daughters, Ashley (16) and Whitney (11), and reside in Wexford.

KEVIN CONRAD

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Kevin Conrad was named visiting clubhouse manager in January of 1998. In his current role, he is responsible for maintaining a comfortable atmosphere in the visiting baseball clubhouse in addition to assisting equipment manager Roger Wilson in day-to-day clubhouse operations.

Prior to joining the Pirates' organization, Conrad served as an assistant in the Philadelphia Phillies' visiting clubhouse for six seasons. He also serves as the visiting clubhouse manager during spring training and has assisted Wilson during the Pirates' stay in Bradenton, Florida, since 1995.

The 32-year-old Conrad is a native of Rahway, NJ, and is a graduate of Roselle (NJ) Catholic High School. He currently resides in the North Hills area of Pittsburgh.

(#)Injury Rehabilitation Assignment

Selected by Pittsburgh in 1993 June free agent draft (37th round).

...THAT 20-YEAR-OLD RIGHTHANDER NICK MADDOX MADE SIX STARTS FOR THE PIRATES IN 1907 AND WENT 5-1 WITH SIX COMPLETE GAMES. HE TOSSED THE FRANCHISE'S FIRST NO-HITTER ON SEPTEMBER 20TH OF THAT SEASON AND ALLOWED JUST FIVE EARNED RUNS IN 54.0 INNINGS OF WORK. THE FOLLOWING SEASON, MADDOX POSTED A 23-8 RECORD AND SET A MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD BY RECORDING HIS 20TH MAJOR LEAGUE VICTORY IN JUST 30 APPEARANCES. HE ALSO NOTCHED THE WIN IN THE PIRATES' FIRST-EVER VICTORY IN THE HISTORY OF FORBES FIELD ON JULY 2, 1909.

...THE LAST MAJOR LEAGUE PITCHER TO TOSS 18 INNINGS IN ONE GAME WAS VERNON LAW OF THE PIRATES. HE ACCOMPLISHED THE FEAT ON JULY 19, 1955, AGAINST THE MILWAUKEE BRAVES, ALLOWING TWO RUNS ON NINE HITS, WHILE STRIKING OUT 12 AND WALKING ONLY THREE. HOWEVER, IT TOOK THE BUCS ONE MORE INNING TO DEFEAT THE BRAVES, 4-3, AND LAW'S ONLY VERDICT WAS A NO-DECISION.

Brian Smith Selected from Toronto in Rule 5 draft
Bruce Aven Acquired from Florida
Brant Brown Traded to Florida
14 Wil Cordero Signed as a free agent from Cleveland
15 Roberto Manzueta Acquired from Arizona; assigned to minors

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN: Only six players (Brant Brown, Al Martin, Warren Morris, Scott Sauerbeck, Jason Schmidt and Kevin Young) from the opening day roster spent the entire season with the Pirates...Of those 25 players from the opening day roster, 14 spent time on the disabled list (includes Brian Giles, who suffered a season-ending finger fracture on 9/21 and did not officially go on DL) and five were either sent to the minors or traded...The Pirates placed a player on the D.L. 23 different times in 1999...In addition, Mike Benjamin missed the last 11 games with a strained hamstring/quad, Jose Silva missed the last 16 games with biceps tendinitis and Giles missed the last 11 with a broken finger (those three did not go on the D.L. in September).

BEHIND THE MASK: In 81 games after Jason Kendall suffered his season-ending injury on 7/4, the Pirates went 38-43 and the catchers hit a collective .181 (50-for-276) with two home runs and 21 RBI.

FOR THE RECORD: The Pirates finished the season with a 78-83 record, the only time in '99 that their record dipped five games below .500...They were a season-high five games over .500 following the action on 6/4 (29-24)...Following their 9-6 win over the Cubs on 4/11, the Pirates were 4-2 and sat alone atop the N.L. Central for the only time in 1999...They also shared the top spot on three other occasions (4/9, 4/10 and 4/12)...The Bucs were at .500 for the last time on 9/1 (67-67) and were over .500 for the final time on 8/15 (59-58).

BOMBER SQUADRON #20: For the first time in the history of the franchise, four players hit 20 or more home runs in the same season for the Pirates...Brian Giles (39), Kevin Young (26), Al Martin (24) and Ed Sprague (22) combined to hit 111 of the club's 171 on the season (65%)...There had been six seasons in which three players topped the 20-homer mark (1988, 1979, 1976, 1975, 1973 & 1966).

ERA MOVEMENT: Pittsburgh's pitchers finished the season with a 4.33 ERA, which ranked sixth among National League teams (the Pirates' also ranked sixth in 1998 with a 3.91 ERA)...Four of the five teams that finished ahead of the Bucs in ERA this season made the playoffs, and the fifth (Cincinnati), lost to the Mets in a one-game playoff to determine the wild card team.

KEY MAKES HISTORY: Kevin Young became the first player in club history to collect at least 100 runs, 40 doubles, 20 home runs, 100 RBI and 20 stolen bases in the same season...Only two other first basemen in major league history have accomplished the feat - Jeff Bagwell (1997 & 1996) and Rafael Palmeiro (1993).

20-20: Al Martin and Kevin Young each swiped 20 bases and hit 20 home runs this season...Only three other Pirates have ever done so - Dave Parker (1978-79), Andy Van Slyke (1987-88) and Barry Bonds (1987, 1991-92)...Bonds and Van Slyke are the only other teammates to do it in the same season (1987).

40-40: Kevin Young has had 40 doubles in consecutive seasons...The only other Pirate player to have back-to-back seasons with 40-or-more doubles was Paul Waner, who had 40+ doubles in three straight seasons between 1927 (42), 1928 (50) and 1929 (43).

100-100: In the last 50 years (1950-1999), only eight Pirates have knocked in at least 100 runs and scored at least 100 runs in the same season (Ralph Kiner, Roberto Clemente, Willie Stargell, Dave Parker, Bobby Bonilla, Brian Bonds, Brian Giles and Kevin Young)...Young and Giles represent the third set of teammates to do it in the same season, joining Pie Traynor & Kiki Cuyler (1925) and Bonds & Bonilla (1990).

A PAIR OF 13's: Todd Ritchie (15) and Jason Schmidt (13) led the Pittsburgh staff in victories...The last time the Pirates produced a pair of 13-game winners was 1992, when Doug Drabek went 15-11 and Randy Tomlin went 14-9.

IN RIGHT FIELD: Manager Gene Lamont trotted out eight different starting rightfielders this season; the most at any position...Brant Brown led the way with 55 starts, followed by Adrian Brown (33), Jose Guillen (29), Brian Giles (23), Freddy Garcia (6), Turner Ward (6), Chad Hermanson (5) and John Wehner (4)...In 1998, a total of four different players started in right field (Guillen, Ward, A. Brown and Mark Smith).

KA-BOOM! The club averaged 31,063 fans (217,446 total) for its seven post-game fireworks' displays (21,853 on 9/17, 31,364 on 8/21, 33,862 on 7/31, 28,893 on 7/3, 31,052 on 6/11, 27,017 on 5/15 and 43,405 on 4/5)...An average of 33,947 fans came out to see the Bucs in 1998 on the six dates when a post-game pyrotechnical display took place.

HOMERS AT HOME: With two home runs on 9/19 vs. Cincinnati, Brian Giles tied the club record for most home runs hit in one season @Three Rivers with 24...Willie Stargell also hit 24 of his league-leading 44 homers @Three Rivers Stadium in 1973...Ralph Kiner holds the overall club record for most homers at home, hitting 31 of his 40 at Forbes Field in 1948.

100 RUNS: The Pirates had two players - Brian Giles (109) and Kevin Young (103) - score at least 100 runs for the first time since Barry Bonds (109) and Andy Van Slyke (103) did so in 1992...Al Martin (97) came within three runs of giving the club three players with 100 or more runs scored for the first time since Arky Vaughan (122), Gus Suhr (111) and Paul Waner (107) did so in 1936.

MARTIN MOVIN' UP: Al Martin has now hit 62 career home runs @Three Rivers Stadium...Only five players have hit more homers @Three Rivers than Martin - they are Willie Stargell (147), Barry Bonds (88), Dave Parker (88), Bill Robinson (64) and Andy Van Slyke (63).

FOR THE RECORD: The Pirates won 78 games in 1999 - just the second time since 1992 that the club has won more than 75 games...They went 79-83 in 1997 and have not produced a winning record since going 96-66 in 1992...They completed their home schedule with a 3-2 win over the Astros on September 22 and went 45-36 at home last season, the most home victories since the '92 squad posted a 53-28 ledger @Three Rivers.

OUT OF THE GATE: The home opener on April 5 - a 9-2 loss to the Expos - marked the first time since 1995 that the Bucs' regular season lid-lifter was at Three Rivers Stadium...The last season in which the Pirates opened the regular season at home with a victory was 1993 (9-4 win over the Padres)...That victory also represents the last time the club won its home opener (the club has lost its last six home openers).

SOLD OUT: The home opener was sold out, marking the third straight season in which the Pirates have sold out the home opener and the seventh time in Three Rivers Stadium history...The crowd of 43,405 surpassed 1998's opening day crowd of 43,268 and marked the largest home opening crowd since 1994 (44,074).

ROSTER NOTES: A total of 18 players returned from 1998's opening day roster, including Jeff Wallace who began last season on the disabled list...Three players had no major league playing time (Jason Phillips, Scott Sauerbeck and Warren Morris) and six were picked up from other clubs during the off-season (Mike Benjamin, Brant Brown, Brian Giles, Pat Meares, Pete Schourek and Ed Sprague)...The oldest player on the active roster was Ed Sprague (turned 32 on 7/25) and the youngest was Jeff Wallace (22)...The average age of Pittsburgh's opening day roster was 27.4, compared to 26.7 in 1998.

FINALLY: At long last, the Pirates and the city of Pittsburgh officially broke ground on PNC Park on Wednesday, April 7...The festivities, open to the public, began at 5:30 PM with a party on the Sixth Street Bridge...At 6:30 PM, the bridge was officially dedicated as the Roberto Clemente bridge with a ceremony including Steve Blass, National League President Len Coleman and members of the Clemente family...At 7:30 PM, official groundbreaking ceremonies began on the site of PNC Park...Featured speakers included the Commissioner of Baseball Bud Selig, PA Governor Tom Ridge, US Senator Rick Santorum, Pittsburgh Mayor Tom Murphy, PNC Chairman Tom O'Brien and Pirates' CEO and Managing General Partner Kevin McClatchy...Following the program, a laser and fireworks show lit up the buildings and skies over Pittsburgh.

IT TAKES TWO: On April 9, the Pirates were victorious despite collecting just two hits...The last time the club accomplished that in a 9-inning game was 5/3/91, when Gene Smith defeated Pete Harnisch and the Astros, 1-0, @Three Rivers (the Bucs were out-hit 4-2)...Both pitchers hurled complete games and it took just 1:45 to complete...The Bucs won a 3-1 game @Atlanta with just two hits on 7/5/94, but that tilt was called after 6.5 frames on account of rain.

A GRAND TIME: On April 10, Ed Sprague hit his fourth career grand slam and the first one in the National League in 1999...It was the first grand slam by a Pittsburgh player @Three Rivers since Al Martin took Colorado's Bruce Ruffin deep on 5/14/97...Jose Guillen hit the club's lone grand slam in 1998 on 6/21 @Milwaukee.

1999 NOTES

SATURDAYS IN THE PARK: On April 10, a crowd of 22,479 came out to see the Pirates beat the Cubs, 9-3. It was the largest April Saturday afternoon gathering of Three Rivers since 23,411 witnessed the affair on 4/18/92 vs. Philadelphia. On July 17, 43,299 were on hand to see the Indians - setting a club record for the largest attendance ever for a Saturday afternoon game @Three Rivers...The previous high was 34,754 against the Phillies on 8/4/79.

THEY MET AGAIN: While pitching with Nashville (AAA) in 1998, Kris Benson opposed Matt Clement, who was pitching for Las Vegas. The two squared off on 5/8 @Nashville with the Stars winning 7-1. Benson (4.0ip/9h/5r/5er/1bb/3so) took the loss and Clement was the winner (8.0ip/4h/1r/1er/1bb/8so). Freddy Garcia accounted for the lone Nashville run with a home run...The two hurlers met in San Diego on 4/20 and neither pitcher received a decision as Mike Williams earned the 10-inning, 7-3 Bucco victory over Trevor Hoffman. Benson (5.2ip/2er) and Clement (7.0ip/3er).

APRIL HOMERS: Brian Giles homered six times in April - the most by a Bucco in April since Jeff King hit nine during the first month of the season in 1996.

MAY DAY: The Pirates have played @Three Rivers on May 1 five times in the last 14 years and the club has won all five games (1987, 1994, 1997, 1998 & 1999)...The Bucs have posted two straight winning Mays and this season, with their 17-12 record, had their best May mark since since 1991 (17-8).

TAKE A WALK: On May 1 the Pirates walked a season-high 12 times - the most walks the club has received in a nine-inning game since walking 12 times against the Cubs in a 3-1 win @Three Rivers on 9/12/97 (the Rockies also issued 12 free passes to the Bucs in a 15-10 Pittsburgh win @Three Rivers on 5/14/97)...The four walks issued to Warren Morris that day were the most received by an individual Pirate since Mark Johnson walked four times on 5/22/97 @Montreal...Kevin Young also walked four times five days later @St. Louis...In 1998 every major league club received at least 400 walks except the Pirates, who walked just 393 times...This year the Bucs received 573 free passes, the 11th highest total in the league.

IT'S NEVER OVER: Prior to their 9-8 victory over the Giants on 5/3, the Pirates were 0-9 when trailing after 8 innings...The club was 1-81 in games when trailing after 8 frames in 1998, winning for the only time on 5/30 vs. Montreal (scored three runs in 9th, erasing a 7-5 deficit)...The win also marked the Bucs' fourth of 16 wins in their last at bat in 1999 (they had a total of eight "last at bat" victories in 1998).

50-50 CHANCE: On Monday, May 3, Jason Kendall went 5-for-5 without scoring a run or collecting an RBI...The last major league player to record a "50-50" line was Atlanta's Jeff Blausen on 6/10/96 @Shea Stadium...The last Pittsburgh player to do so was Matty Alou, who went 5-for-5 without a run or RBI (all hits off Juan Marichal) in a 7-4 loss on 8/19/70 vs. San Francisco @Three Rivers.

LOST IN THE EXCITEMENT: In the game on May 3 that saw Jason Kendall go 5-for-5 and the Pirates score four runs off San Francisco closer Robb Nen in the bottom of the 9th for the win, Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent hit for the cycle...Only one other player has ever hit for the cycle in the 28-year history of Three Rivers Stadium...St. Louis catcher Joe Torre also accomplished the feat on 6/27/73.

HOME STREAK: The Pirates lost six straight home games between 4/13-30 for the first time since the 1986 season when they lost four games to the Expos (8/4-7) and two to the Astros (8/18-19).

HIGH FIVE: On May 9, Pat Meares had a career-high five hits in a 5-for-6 effort at Busch Stadium...He became the second Bucco to have five hits in a game within a seven-day span as Jason Kendall had a 5-for-5 performance on May 3 at Three Rivers against the Giants...The last time a pair of Pirate teammates had five hits in a game during a season was 1994, when Don Slaught and Jay Bell each turned the trick.

INSIDER INFO: Also in St. Louis on May 9, Brant Brown hit his first home run of the season, an inside-the-park, three-run job in the 4th inning...It was the club's only inside-the-park homer of the season and the 502nd inside-the-park home run in franchise history.

DOINK!!: The Pirates were hit by a pitch four times in Miami on 5/22, one plunking shy of the club record set on April 23, 1890, against the Cleveland Spiders...Since 1900, only one National League team has been hit five times in one game (Atlanta vs. Cincinnati on July 2, 1969).

STREAKS ENDS: On Saturday, May 22, the Bucs snapped their eight-game road losing streak and one of their season-high five-game losing streaks...It was their longest streak on the road since losing nine in a row to end the '98 season...The Bucs also lost a season-high five straight games between 7/19-23.

SWITCHING THE BATTERY: In a 19-8 loss to the Astros in Houston on 5/11, catcher Keith Osik became the first Pirates position player to pitch in a game since John Cangelosi tossed 2.0 scoreless innings and allowed just one hit in a 14-6 loss to the Dodgers on 5/3/88 in Los Angeles...Keith had pitched in a minor league game with Buffalo (AAA) in 1994 and took the loss in 9-8 defeat at New Orleans on 5/13...His line vs. Houston - 1.0ip/2h/4r/4er/2bb/1so.

A ROMP: The Pirates scored a season-high 17 runs in a 17-6 victory over the Expos @Three Rivers Stadium on 5/15 - the most runs scored by the Bucs since winning a 19-2 decision over the Mets in Pittsburgh on 9/26/92.

WINNING WAYS: The Pirates won a season-high seven straight games between 5/28 and 6/4 - the longest winning streak by the club since winning nine consecutive games between 8/16-26 in 1998.

HOMER HAPPY AT CHAVEZ RAVINE: The Bucs homered five times @Dodger Stadium on 6/15...In 239 career games there, the Pirates have homered five times in the same game on three occasions (6/24/65, 5/7/73 and 6/15/99)...Willie Stargell hit three in the 1965 contest.

GROOVY: Nineteen members of the 1979 World Champion Pirates were in attendance on Saturday, May 29, as part of the 20th anniversary celebration weekend...The current club "turned back the clock" by sporting uniforms from that season (gold tops, black pants) and the Bucs defeated Shane Reynolds and the Astros, 5-1.

WHERE'S LEROY BROWN?: The Pirates played their first-ever game on the south side of Chicago on Friday, June 4, and won a 6-3 decision...The White Sox won both meetings in Pittsburgh in 1998 (6/22-23) after the Bucs swept a three-game series @Three Rivers in 1997 (6/30-7/2).

WHERE WAS TAFT?: The game on Monday, June 7, marked Pittsburgh's first game in Detroit since Babe Adams hurled a complete game shutout at Bennett Park, as the Pirates defeated Wild Bill Donovan and the Tigers, 8-0, on 10/16/09 in Game Seven of the World Series (Pittsburgh's first of five World Championships)...The Pirates went 2-2 in Bennett Park in the '09 Series...Adams proved to be the hero for the Bucs, starting and winning three games, including that decisive seventh game...Honus Wagner (.333) outlit Fy Cobb (.231) and Hall-of-Fame outfielder Fred Clarke homered twice for Pittsburgh.

RUNNETH OVER: The Bucs' streak of 10 innings with at least one run came to an end in the 9th inning on Wednesday, June 9 - four frames shy of the major league record...They scored at least one run in each of the first eight innings on 6/9 after scoring in both the 8th and 9th innings on 6/8 (only three teams this century have scored a run in all nine innings of a game).

IN THE BIG INNING: The Pirates' eight-run 4th inning against the Phillies on June 30 was Pittsburgh's largest run output in a single frame this season and the club's biggest since scoring nine runs in the 8th inning against Colorado in a 15-10 win @Three Rivers on 5/14/97.

CRUZ MISSILE: On Saturday, July 3, Ivan Cruz hit his first major league home run and the club's first pinch-hit homer of the season.

#1500: On July 5, Jimmy Anderson became the 1500th player to appear in a game for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

MID-WAY POINT: The Pirates had a 40-41 record at the mid-way point of the season and were in 3rd place, 7.0 games behind the division-leading Reds...After 81 games in 1998 (June 27), the Pirates had posted a 38-43 record and were in 5th place, 10.5 games behind the division-leading Astros...The last season in which the Bucs were at or above .500 after 81 games was 1992 (.4437).

THE STREAKER: Al Martin hit safely in a career-best, 20 straight games between 6/22 and 7/11 - the longest streak by a Bucco since Carlos Garcia produced a 21-game hit streak in 1995 (6/5-27).

TURNSTILE TALLY: The crowd of 43,519 vs. Cleveland on July 16 represented the largest home crowd of the season, eclipsing the 43,405 that came out on opening day vs. Montreal...When the Indians visited Pittsburgh in 1997 (September 1-3), a total of 126,191 came out to see the three games - the fourth-largest three-game total in club history...The largest ever three-date series total - 128,062 - occurred between October 1-3, 1990 vs. New York...The two clubs drew 126,438 (42,146 avg.) in their three games this year, the third largest total for a three-game series in club history.

SELLOUTS: In addition to selling out the home opener for the third straight season, the Pirates/Indians games on Friday (7/16) and Saturday (7/17) at Three Rivers Stadium were sold out...The Bucs had back-to-back sellouts against the Cardinals in 1998 on 8/22 (45,082) and 8/23 (42,134)...The club posted three sellouts last season after also drawing three capacity crowds in 1998.

INTER-LEAGUE PLAY: The Pirates went 7-8 against the American League (4-2 at home and 3-6 on the road)...In the three seasons of inter-league play, the Bucs have gone 20-23 (12-11 at home) and have attracted 714,682 fans in 23 inter-league home contests (30,073 average).

WILD ONE: On Saturday, July 17, the Pirates and Indians began a Saturday afternoon affair @Three Rivers at 1:38 PM...A mere 3 hours and 41 minutes later (5:19 PM), the nine-inning game came to an end...The clubs combined to use 13 pitchers (seven by Pittsburgh) and amazingly, the starters - Charles Nagy and Kris Benson - were the pitchers of record...The Bucs had leads of 3-0 (after three innings), 7-2 (after four) and 11-6 (after six) before holding on for a 13-10 victory...With two outs in the 9th, the Tribe put two runners on before Mike Williams induced Kenny Lofton to fly out to end the game.

TWO HATERS: Against the Indians on 7/17, both Al Martin and Kevin Young homered twice...The last time the Bucs had two players homer twice in the same game was June 20, 1987 in Chicago, when both Barry Bonds and Jim Morrison combined for four of the six homers hit at Wrigley Field that day.

EVERYBODY WAS ACCOUNTED FOR: In their 7-1 win over the Braves @Three Rivers on 8/3, the Pirates did not leave a runner on base (each of the seven runs came by a hom run)...It marked the first time since 4/30/91 (4-3 loss @Cincinnati) that the Bucs ended a game without a LOB.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD SET: The Pirates combined to leave just one runner on base in back-to-back games on 8/3-4, establishing a National League record and tying the major league mark for fewest runners left on in consecutive games...The previous N.L. record of two LOB was accomplished six times (last by the Dodgers on April 12-13, 1996)...The major league record is also held by the Tigers (May 3-4, 1996) and Yankees (September 21-22, 1982).

HOPE YOU DIDN'T BLINK: On August 4, the Pirates and Braves played the quickest game in the major leagues in 1999 (1:48), eclipsing the 1:49 it took the Tigers to beat the Red Sox, 1-0, on 4/22 @Detroit...The 3-2 Pittsburgh victory was the quickest by the club since Zane Smith and Houston's Pete Harnisch tossed complete games in 1:45 @Three Rivers on 5/3/91 (Pirates won 1-0).

RARE FEAT: On 8/18 in Cincinnati, Dale Sveum became just the second player in Pirates history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game...He joins Bobby Bonilla who accomplished the feat twice (7/3/87 vs. LA and 4/6/88 vs. PHI)...It was the third time in Sveum's career that he has done it, the first two times as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers on 6/12/88 @Chicago and 7/17/87 @California.

EARLY ACTION: In a 20-game span between 8/20 and 9/10, either the Pirates or their opponent scored at least one run in the 1st inning...In that span, the Bucs scored in 14 games (17 runs total) and the opposition scored in eight games (13 total runs).

THE AIR UP THERE: Not only did the Pirates win back-to-back games @Coors Field for just the second time ever, they swept the Rockies in a three-game series on Colorado's home turf between 8/30 and 9/1...Prior to 1999, the Pirates had gone 6-14 in the first four years of play @Coors Field.

RECORD-BREAKING NIGHT: Brant Brown's pinch-hit homer in the 8th inning @Arizona on 9/14 was the Pirates' 159th home run of the season - which established a club record for most homers in a single season (the previous record of 158 was set in 1966)...The Bucs hit just a total of 107 homers in 163 games in 1998 and finished their record-breaking 1999 season with 171.

UNFRIENDLY CONFINES: The Pirates had lost 10 straight games @Wrigley Field prior to their win there on 9/26...The Bucs went 0-5 against the Cubs in Chicago in 1998 and had lost their first five games in '99 before winning the final meeting on 9/26.

THRU THE GATES: Pittsburgh's total home attendance figure was 1,638,073, and average of 20,475 for 80 dates...That figure represents the 9th largest home attendance in club history - the 8th-best in Three Rivers Stadium history - and ranked 14th among the 16 National League teams (24th among the 30 major league teams)...The club attracted 77,073 more fans than it did in 1998, the eighth largest increase among N.L. club from a year ago.

ROAD SHOW: Among their 12 road trips in 1999, the Pirates produced just two winning trips...They went 4-2 on the first one of the season to Cincinnati (2-1) and San Diego (2-1) and went 4-2 on a six-game trip to San Francisco (1-2) and Colorado (3-0) between 8/28 and 9/1...The Pirates went 33-47 on the road in '99...With their victory in Arizona on 9/15, they surpassed last year's win total on the road (29-53).

THE LINEUP CARD: Manager Gene Lamont used 108 different lineups in 1999...He used 106 different starting lineups in 1998 and 108 in 1997.

MONTH BY MONTH: Here's a six-month breakdown of the Pirates' pitching and hitting in 1999:

MONTH	AVG (hits-at bats)	R	HR	RBI	W-L	ERA (ip/er)	BB	SO	HR

Now in their 114th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The As and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909.

The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's most valuable player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against the New York Yankees famed "Murderers' Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (mark was tied by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and future Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 64-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors – as he did during the regular season – with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296).

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, ranking him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates. On August 6, 1998, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark started becoming a reality when PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the club stayed in the division race until the final weekend of the season and was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season.

The end of the millenium will bring the close of two chapters of this storied franchise and open the page to a brand new one. The year 2000 will witness the end of a full century of Pirate moments, a 100-year period that began with three straight National League pennants and will end with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come, as PNC Park rises from its concrete base. But with a new home on the horizon, the Bucs will have to say goodbye to an old friend. Although a relatively faceless structure, Three Rivers Stadium has provided fans with its share of baseball memories and legends. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

BILLY MEYER

1948-1952

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

MANAGER

RALPH KINER

1946-1952

Born Oct. 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-52), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, second only to Babe Ruth's 8.5 per 100 at-bats. Number retired in 1987.

WILLIE STARGELL

1962-1982

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988). Number retired in 1982.

BILL MAZEROSKI

1956-1972

Born Sept. 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-72), "Maz" won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen he holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Number retired in 1987.

PIE TRAYNOR

1920-35, 37

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 37). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939. Number retired in 1972.

21

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

1955-1972

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirate outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers and two doubles against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed. Number retired in 1973.

33

HONUS WAGNER

1900-1917

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted right handed. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936. Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories. Number retired in 1952.

DANNY MURTAUGH

1957-1976

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted right handed. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1960 and 1970. Number retired in 1977.

40

JACKIE ROBINSON

1947-1956

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

PAUL TINNELL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Paul has been a member of the Pittsburgh organization since 1990. After serving as a college baseball coach for nine years, he began his scouting career in 1990 as a scouting supervisor for the Cleveland Indians. Tinnell spent nearly three seasons as a scouting supervisor for the Pirates in the state of Florida before being named the club's Director of Scouting on July 31, 1993. He was named to his current position on October 7, 1996.

In his role, Tinnell is responsible for the continued development and advancement of players beginning with their signing and continuing through the minor league system, and, ultimately, to the major league level. He also supervises the administration of the minor leagues and oversees the relationship with the Pirates' minor league affiliates. In addition, Paul is responsible for the signing of all minor league free agents.

Tinnell was born on 9/21/57 in Lynchburg, VA. He earned a bachelors degree in health and education from the University of Tennessee-Martin in 1980 and received a masters degree in educational administration/supervision in 1982. Tinnell was voted to the All-West-Tennessee All-Star baseball team his senior year (1980). Paul and his wife Laurie reside in Pine Township with their three children; John (15), Kevin (12) and Jennifer (9).

MICKEY WHITE

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Michael J. "Mickey" White was named the Pirates' Director of Scouting on November 23, 1998. He joins the organization after spending the past three years as an assistant to Chuck LaMar, the General Manager of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. White joined the Devil Rays after serving as General Manager for The Baseball Academy at the Bollitieri Sports Academy in Bradenton, FL, for two years.

From 1990 to 1993, Mickey was Director of Scouting and a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Cleveland Indians. While with the Indians, he directed the team's free agent drafts in 1991 and 1992. In 1992, White received the TOPPS' Scouting All-Star Award and the Indians were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America.

White was also the East Coast Scouting Supervisor for the Seattle Mariners from 1988 to 1990 and served the Cincinnati Reds as their Northeast Scouting Supervisor from 1982 to 1988. Prior to entering Major League Baseball's scouting domain, Mickey served five years at his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was the baseball coach and offensive coordinator for the intramural football team.

Mickey was born on 3/31/50 in Pittsburgh, PA. He received his bachelors degree from Rutgers University in 1973 and his masters from Fairleigh-Dickinson University's Graduate School of Business. A native of Pittsburgh and a graduate of Seton LaSalle High School, White resides in Madison, CT, with his wife Maryann and his three children; Karl (20), Erin (17) and Lauren (16).

JOHN GREEN

COORD./MIN. LEAGUE PLAYER PERSONNEL

Green begins his first season as the Pirates' Coordinator of Minor League Player Personnel after serving the club as a Special Assignment Scout in 1999. He is responsible for the supervision of all the managers, coaches, instructors and trainers at each of the Pirates' minor league affiliates. In addition, John will coordinate the player movement throughout the farm system.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Green spent eight years with the Orioles as their East Coast Scouting Supervisor (1998), an area scout based in Phoenix (1993-97) and an Associate Scout (1991-92). John, who was signed by Chicago (NL) as a non-drafted free agent in 1985, spent six years playing minor league ball with the Cubs (1985-88) and Yankees (1989-90). His father, Dallas, managed eight seasons in the major leagues and is currently a senior advisor to Phillies' General Manager Ed Wade.

Green was born on 10/8/63 in Wilmington, DE. He and his wife Roxanna reside in Conowingo, MD, with their son Dallas (8/26/99). John is a 1991 graduate of the University of Arizona (geological engineering).

STEVE DEMETER

FIELD COORDINATOR

Demeter brings more than 43 years of baseball experience to his current position with the Pirates, the same role he held in 1984 and 1986. Steve began his association with Pittsburgh in 1972 as player-manager of the Pirates' Sherbrooke club in the Eastern League. After managing in the Bucs' farm system for nine years (1972-1980), Demeter served the club as its Minor League Hitting Instructor for three seasons (1981-83) and the Coordinator of Instruction in 1984. In 1985 Steve was a member of the major league coaching staff under Chuck Lanner. He managed at Salem in 1987 before becoming a scouting supervisor in 1988, a position he held until being named to his current post on October 31, 1996.

A veteran of 19 seasons, Demeter's playing career began in 1953 and concluded in 1972, with his only major league playing experience coming in 1959 when he played 11 games with Detroit and in 1960 when he appeared in four games with Cleveland. In his first season of pro ball, Steve batted .349 with 15 home runs and 123 RBI in 124 games with Wausau. His minor league high of 26 homers came with Toronto (Brewers' AAA) in 1961. He led the International League in hits while playing with Rochester in 1965 and 1966 and led the circuit in doubles three straight seasons (1965-67).

Demeter was born on 1/27/35, in Homer City, PA. He and his wife Joanne reside in Cleveland, OH, and have two children; Catharine (43) and Stephen (33).

Nashville won a franchise-record, and minor league season-high 15 straight games between 6/2-20 before losing, 8-7 in 13 innings, @Tucson on 6/22 (had the day off on 6/21). The Sounds, who had a 46-21 record and an 8.5-game lead after the winning streak, went 34-39 in their final 73 games to finish 2.0 games behind division-leading Oklahoma (Rangers) in the four-team East Division.

The club placed fifth in the 16-team circuit in hitting with a .289 mark and ranked third in pitching with a 4.49 ERA. Nashville drew 366,684 spectators to the ballpark in 67 home dates (5,473 average), placing eighth in the league.

Outfielder Chad Hermansen was named to the post-season All-Star team. He ranked third in the league with 32 home runs and led the farm system with 97 RBI to earn a September promotion to Pittsburgh. Aramis Ramirez, who hit .369 with 11 homers and 23 RBI during the month of May, ranked fourth in the PCL with a .328 batting average. He was named to the mid-season All-Star Game and participated in The Futures Game @Fenway Park.

First baseman Ivan Cruz was the talk of the league for the first three months. In his first 65 games with the Sounds, Cruz hit .338 and led the PCL with 23 home runs, a .704 slugging percentage and 77 RBI (his 77 RBI was 19 more than any other player in all of Triple-A). He was promoted to Pittsburgh on 6/25, but suffered an injury on 7/4, and did not play again, except for a 13-game rehab stint in the minors. Cruz was also a mid-season All-Star selection.

In its first season as an affiliate of the Pirates, Altoona went 67-73 and finished sixth among the six-team South Division in the Eastern League. The Curve went 12-21 in their first 33 games, but then played .575 ball (50-37) between 5/14 and 8/13. However, the club won just five of its remaining 20 games and finished 13 games behind division-leading Trenton (Red Sox).

The Curve, named after the famed "Horseshoe Curve" in the railroad tracks five miles from the city, played its home games at Blair County Ballpark. The 6,022-seat venue opened its gates for the first time on April 15, 1999, and drew a standing-room only crowd of 6,171 against Bowie (Orioles).

Altoona hit .258 on the year to finish ninth in batting in the 12-team circuit and posted a 4.05 ERA to rank fifth in pitching. The Curve attracted 323,932 fans and averaged 4,695 per home date to Blair County Stadium, which placed them sixth in the league.

Outfielder Tike Redman led the Eastern League with 12 triples and led the club with 29 stolen bases. Third baseman Kevin Haverbusch was the club's lone representative in the mid-season All-Star Game.

Righthander Bronson Arroyo paced the circuit with a 15-4 record and ranked ninth with a 3.65 ERA (he earned a promotion to Triple-A on 8/24). Lefty Brian O'Connor, a member of the Pirates' 40-man roster the entire season, led Altoona in starts (27), innings pitched (153.1) and strikeouts (106).

With Manager Scott Little at the helm, the Hillcats failed to make the post-season for the second straight season after winning the Carolina League championship in 1997. Lynchburg posted a 35-34 mark in the first half and finished third in the four-team Northern Division, 4.0 games behind Wilmington (Royals). In the second half of the campaign, the club slipped to a 29-39 record and a fourth place finish, 8.5 games behind the Royals.

Lynchburg ranked third in the eight-squad league with a .259 average and seventh with a 4.38 ERA. The club also drew a league-low 110,937 fans, falling 2,208 short of its attendance record set in 1998.

The Hillcats sent three players to the league All-Star game in Lake Elsinore, CA, on 6/22: catcher Yamid Hoad, first baseman Eddy Furniss and outfielder Kory DeHaan.

Furniss ranked fourth in home runs (23) and sixth in RBI (87). In addition, he tied for third with 33 doubles and ranked fourth with a .393 on-base percentage. For his efforts, Eddy was named to the post-season All-Star team. Outfielder Freddy May ranked third in the league in hitting with a .298 mark and second with a .408 on-base percentage.

Outfielder Derrick Lankford, also a member of the post-season All-Star team, ranked sixth in the league in hitting (.292), fifth in homers (20) and tied for fourth in RBI (88). "Big D" also led the circuit with a .520 slugging percentage and tied for third in triples (eight).

On the mound, Sam McConnell went 7-3 and led the league with two shutouts. He also posted a 3.19 ERA in his 15 starts and shared the league lead with four complete games. Andy Bausher, a 10-game loser in 1998, led the Carolina League with 15 losses in '99.

P JASON JADGCHEW

TRAINER

Born October 6, 1972 in Cleveland, OH...Resides in Parma, OH...Begins his fourth season as a trainer in the Pirates' farm system...Is a 1996 graduate of the University of Toledo where he earned a degree in exercise science...Worked as a trainer at Cleveland's spring training complex in 1997...Joined the Pirates in May of 1997 as an assistant trainer with Bradenton...Is in the process of working towards a master's degree in education from Campbell University (NC) while assisting their athletic training staff.

Despite losing a minor league-high 16 straight games between 7/4-20 in their first season as an affiliate of the Pirates, the Crawdads made the post-season behind second-year manager Tracy Woodson. This marked the fifth straight year that the Pirates' entry in the South Atlantic League has made the playoffs.

The club went 35-35 in the initial half to finish in fourth place, 8.5 games behind Capital City (Mets). Hickory posted an identical 35-35 mark in the second half and finished third, 5.5 games behind division-leading Greensboro (Yankees). Their overall record of 70-70 placed them sixth among the 16 teams and was good enough to advance the Crawdads to the South Atlantic League playoffs.

In the first round of the playoffs, Hickory swept Macon in a best-of-three series for the second straight year, winning 14-7 and 7-4. Augusta, Pittsburgh's South Atlantic League affiliate in 1998, bounced the Crawdads from the post-season, winning the final two games of their best-of-three set after Hickory captured the first game with a 3-2 win.

The club placed sixth in the 14-team league with a .256 average and ninth with a 3.99 ERA. Hickory averaged 2,637 spectators in 68 dates for a total of 179,340 fans and third place in league attendance.

First baseman and mid-season All-Star Carlos Rivera finished second in the league batting race (.322) and ranked fifth in RBI (86). Outfielder J.J. Davis had six RBI in one inning during a 14-2 win over Savannah on 7/30.

Catcher Rico Washington hit .355 in 76 games and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team despite a late-season promotion to Lynchburg. He was also named to the mid-season All-Star squad.

Tony Pavlovich, who made the mid-season All-Star team, paced the circuit with 56 appearances while going 5-1 with a team-leading 20 saves and a 2.33 ERA. Three other players were also named to the mid-season All-Star team: left-handed pitcher and Duquesne University's Joe Beimel, outfielder Jovanny Sosa and infielder Jonathan Prieto.

WILLIAMSPORT CROSSCUTTERS

In their first year of a four-year affiliation (thru 2002) with the Pirates, Williamsport went 32-44 and finished last among the six teams in the storied Pinckney-Stedler Division of the New York-Penn League.

Under first-year manager Curtis Wilkerson, the Crosscutters came out of the gates quickly, posting an 8-2 record in their first 10 games and a 14-5 mark after their first 19. The club, however, won just 18 of its final 57 contests to finish in sixth place, 11.0 games behind division winner Mahoning Valley (Indians).

Williamsport drew a total of 57,548 fans in 35 home dates for an average of 1,644 and a 10th place ranking in league attendance. The club placed 12th in the 14-team league with a .244 batting average and seventh in pitching with a 3.89 ERA.

Utility man Antonio Alvarez ranked sixth in the league with a .321 batting average and placed third with 38 stolen bases. Outfielder/first baseman Jason Landreth finished 10th in the batting race with a .314 average.

Righthander Felix Montilla led the staff with 10 saves and ranked fifth in the New York-Penn League in that department. Shane Wright, the Pirates' 9th-round selection in the 1999 June draft, went 2-6, but posted an impressive 2.81 ERA and tied for second in the league with two complete games.

Los Diablos Rojos finished the regular season in second place, 3.0 games behind the Mexico City Tigers in the Central Division with a 74-43 record. However, the Red Devils captured the Mexican League Championship title by beating the Tigers, four-games-to-two, in the final round.

Octavio Alvarez shared the team lead in wins (12) with Carlos Garcia and led the league with seven complete games. Mike Garcia tied a Mexican League record with two saves in one day on 8/3 vs. Cafeteros de Cordoba.

While the club had no individual leaders on offense, the team led the circuit with 122 home runs, 1,250 hits and 210 doubles. Tony Barron ranked fifth in the league in hitting (.341).

PITTSBURGH PIRATES MEDIA POLICIES

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Application for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Friday, March 17. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors, and submitted on official media outlet letterhead.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates everyday. Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio and Television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. Daily requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

ADMISSION TO THE STADIUM: On game days, all credentialed media must enter Three Rivers Stadium through Press Gate A on the street level. The press gate opens 2 hours prior to game time. DAILY CREDENTIALS will be left at the "Media Credential Pick-Up Window" outside Press Gate A (street level).

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: The Pirate clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. The clubhouse is open to credentialed media immediately following games. The clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media - you must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. It may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines and it is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay inside the first and third base bags.

WORKING PRESS BOX: Open to credentialed working members of the print, radio and TV media. Television crew technicians will be accommodated in fourth-level booths. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in press box unless authorized by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

PRESS LOUNGE: Open to credentialed media 90 minutes prior to game time until one hour after game concludes. A full meal is served pre-game for $7.00. Snacks and soft drinks are available during games and post-game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Still photographers must work out of stationary locations adjacent to both dugouts (first base photo position has assigned locations for regular Pittsburgh media outlets). All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products.

REPORTS, RADIO & TV: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned fourth-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress.
- Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.

NOTE: Violation of any of the above policies and procedures could result in revocation of your credentials.

GENERAL INFO

LANNY FRATTARE

VOICE OF THE PIRATES

The 2000 season marks Lanny Frattare's 25th as a broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years) has described the action of Pirate baseball longer. He signed a three-year extension this past January, which will keep him behind the mic with the Bucs thru 2003.

Since joining Pittsburgh's team of announcers in 1976, "The Voice of the Pirates" has done play-by-play for more than 3,500 games and developed a strong following. Fans are familiar with his popular sayings such as, "There was no doubt about it" and "Go ball get outta' here."

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 with the Geneva (NY) Senators (Class A). Frattare's association with the Pirates organization began in 1974 and 1975 when he broadcast games for the Triple-A Charleston (WV) Charlies.

Frattare enjoys golf, presidential history and music. He hosts a celebrity golf tournament at St. Clair Country Club each July for the benefit of the Parent and Child Guidance Center. Lanny and his wife Liz have two children; daughter Megan (18) and son David (25). David currently works in the Attorney General's office of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and his wife, Ann Marie, is in the marketing department of Giant Eagle.

In the off-season, Frattare makes upwards of 60 appearances in conjunction with the Pirates commitment to community involvement. He was elected to Western Chapter Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

GREG BROWN

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his seventh season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Prior to joining the Bucs broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. The Mechanicsburg, PA, native also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93).

His association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Greg worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. He also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign.

In 1988, Brown was a sports anchor on WFMY-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown, who joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994, coined the "Freak Show" theme which gained national attention during the team's surprising division title run in 1997. Also in 1997, the Pennsylvania Press Broadcasters awarded Brown and his colleagues first place for radio play-by-play.

Greg resides in McCandless Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (two).

PIRATE RADIO BROADCAST TEAMS

In 1936 KDKA-Radio hired Rosey Rowswell as the Pirates' first full-time announcer. He worked alone for awhile, then was joined by Jack Craddock and Bob Prince. The following is a chronology of the Pirate radio broadcast teams over the years. Most of the years have been with KDKA (continuous since 1955) but WWSW was also the Pirates' flagship station at one time.

STEVE BLASS

COLOR ANALYST

Steve Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates' broadcast crew in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, he began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Blass won 78 games during a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. He was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment.

He and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and three grandchildren.

BOB WALK

COLOR ANALYST

After spending 14 seasons in a big league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirate broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his major league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against the Kansas City Royals.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984. Walk was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. His finest moment as a Pirate came in 1992 when he notched a 7-1, complete-game victory over Atlanta in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Van Nuys, CA, currently resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie and their three sons; Tommy, Johnny and Ronnie.
